CAMPBELL, SANTA CLARA COUNTY, CALIFORNIA

Thursday, November 7, 1940.

At an early hour Tuesday night, it became apparent that I had picked the losing horse in the November 5 sweepstakes—me and a lot of other people. At the risk of being dubbed a poor loser, I'd like to venture the opinion that if more people had listened to the voice of reason and had been less impressed by political patronage in its various ramifications, there would undoubtedly be a new man in the White House next year.

The majority of the people, however, chose to follow the doubtful leadership of our Chesterfieldian and slightly egotistic Chief Executive. It is only unfortunate that those who held the electoral whip do not also have it in their power to create the opportunities and jobs which are the life-blood of a Democracy.

National unity — favorite after-election plea—is a nice phrase with which to embellish smugly complacent victory speeches but the "other half" will not find it so palatable as it was four years ago. Then there was hope of the eventual triumph of the two-party system; now the future of that system looks black indeed, for given another four years at the helm—and the treasury—the New Dealers will be so firmly entrenched as to constitute a virtual dictatorship of national politics.

It is to be hoped that all the opposition's (to the New Deal) crepe-bound prophecies (including my own) will never come to pass. But there is a good chance that some of them will. Here are a few prognostications which may materialize in the next four years; if they do not, you can tell me "I told you so." 1. The administration will be forced to repudiate the national debt for obvious reasons. 2. America will be in the war up to its neck. 3. The labor unions—in the stress of war-time production, and to avoid the possibility of disputes which might conceivably interrupt the program—will be arbitrarily abolished by the President who, by that time, will have impressed the necessary power.

The bright side, of course, lies heel and toe with the fact that I'm more often wrong than right. So we'll close on a cheerful note (after all, it means little to me, personally, who presides in the White House—that's discounting my blood pressure, of course), and admit that most of the people can be fooled a good deal of the time; that national unity is already here; that Mr. Roosevelt won't give or trade away the rest of the navy without consulting the people; that he will in the future take "my friends" into his confidence when dealing with other nations, and commit us to nothing we can't or don't want to deliver. And last, but not least, that the President will eventually acquire the becoming garment of humility, and arrive at the inescapable conclusion that other men, too, are endowed with brains and the desire to

Orient, Subject At Woman's Club Monday

Mrs. Charles G. Simonds was chairman for the regular meeting of the Country Woman's club meeting on Monday. Assisting her were the Mesdames Oliver Jensen, B. T. Morgan, E. J. Bohnett and W. H. Van Dyke.

The rooms of the club were delightfully decorated with brilliantly colored chrysanthemums and autumn foliage. In keeping with the topic of the day, "Oriental Interior Decoration," lovely Chinese figurines and gay tapestry and brocade panels were placed about the room in pleasing arrangements. As the main center of interest there was a large table on which were displayed embroidered brocades, pieces of porcelain, cloisonne objects, Chinese costumes and jewelry, and various other Oriental objects of art. These articles were all exhibited by Mrs. Mildred Jefferson, speaker of the day. Several of her costumes were worn by the committee.

Mrs. Jefferson spoke upon interior decoration of the Orient and also added many of her own personal experiences while living in Manchukuo, China.

Mrs. Jefferson described the Oriental home as she saw it. The rooms are practically void of furniture. Heavy grass mats are used as chairs, beds and even every day tables. Small trays with legs are used as tables only for very formal occasions. One decorative table was sometimes used in the living room in pleasing relationship with a hanging panel and perhaps an idol or flower arrangement. The size of a Japanese or Chinese house is not measured by the number of rooms but by the number of mats that are used.

When the Jeffersons first arrived in China, they procured a house which was without furniture of any kind, in the ancient walled city of Mukden. They, deciding that they would like to make their home have a bit of the western influence, chose to have a native carpenter build the furniture which they thought essential. They showed him pictures of the things they needed. The resulting atrocities were most humorous. The pictures had been in perspective and that is the way they had been built. This little anecdote shows how very far removed from our modern civilization so many of these people are. Mrs. Jefferson mentioned that sometimes she would not see another white person for several weeks at a time. Mrs. Jefferson serve their country.

It was necessary to get that off my mind. A noted psychologist advised "walking it off," but it's raining tonight, and anyway, I'm too tired. From here on in your commentator is strictly a party to national unity, whether I like it or not—and thanks for listening.

Campbell Looks Forward to Win

Following up their 12-0 win over the Fremont Indians, the Campbell High Buccaneers hope to continue their victory campaign in a game with the Santa Clara High Panthers on Friday, Nov. 8.

In a tussle with Fremont last week, which was featured by two sustained drives at 56 and 60 yards respectively the Buccaneers looked good in a decisive win over their opponents.

Coach Herb Hudson and his team look forward with confidence to a win over this once defeated Panther eleven which has lost only to the Mountain View Eagles and that by a score of 7-0. Campbell has also dropped a game to this same Eagle team but the Buccaneers now seem to be a much better outfit than the one which lost to Mountain View two weeks ago.

High School P. T. A. Meet

The Campbell Union high school P. T. A. will hold its regular November meeting in the Little Theater of the school, Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 3, at 2:30. Attorney D. T. Jenkins of San Jose will be the speaker and during the social hour special recognition will be given to members who are joining the unit for the first time this year.

An executive board meeting will be held at 1:30 in the office of the school.

All parents of high school students are cordially invited to join.

Following the day spent in Campbell last Friday, the tax collector's office under Roy P. Emerson, reported a total of $10,431 in taxes paid into the county treasury; a very considerable advance over last year's $6,124. These sums of course are but a small part of the taxes paid during the year. Emerson said that "Campbell showed the largest per centage of increase in number of individual taxpayers in the county."

son in closing her talk told something of the history of part of the art objects which she had on display.

The regular business meeting was presided over by President Mrs. Wyland R. Morgan, Mrs. Edna Smith reported on the County Federation meeting that was held at We and Our Neighbors club rooms. Two new members, Mrs. Bernard Watson and Miss Helen Stray were voted into membership. Mrs. R. E. Hanger announced that an interesting program and a tea will be held on the next meeting date of Nov. 18. The topic of the day will be "Garden Stories of the Far East."

Mrs. Morgan announced a change in the date of the next Federation meeting which will be held in Campbell to be Nov. 29 instead of in December. Definite arrangements will be announced at the next meeting of the club.

Campbell's lightweights are given an equal chance of defeating the invaders from Santa Clara and the 120 team has a decided edge on the dope sheets.

Turkey Whist Set For Nov. 14th

Egan, principal of Franklin school, San Jose, will be master of ceremonies. This party will be outstanding, because it will be the first time the new card tables, purchased by popular subscription through merchants of San Jose and Campbell for the use of both Campbell units of P. T. A., have been put to use. Playing will start at promptly 8:30. The committee in charge consists of Mrs. C. E. Fagalde, Mrs. M. S. Robertson and Mrs. G. A. Horton.

Chest Goal Falling Short; Agostinho

The workers for the Campbell Community Chest are urging that any persons or homes that were not called upon while the solicitation was in active progress, kindly leave their contributions at the Leverton Hardware store.

Joe Agostinho, campaign manager, states that the goal of $1500, which was set by the directors of the Community Council, is a long way short of attainment and every contribution, however small, will be most welcome.

"It will also be of great help," he said, "if the canvassers will check up on their various territories and make repeat visits if necessary and see that no omissions have been made; as several parties have inquired as to who was responsible for their territory, as no one had called upon them."

Wendell Thomas, Civic Leader, Called by Death

Wendell Collins Thomas passed away in San Jose Saturday following a prolonged illness, with a few periods of partial recovery.

Mr. Thomas was born in Philadelphia, Penna., sixty years ago, but came west in his early youth, residing in the bay cities for some years, removing to San Jose in 1919. He opened real estate and insurance offices there and very soon was actively engaged in civic affairs of all branches concerned with business and welfare.

He was named head of the Santa Clara County Consolidated chambers of commerce of which Campbell's chamber was a member.

Later a ranch was purchased on San Tomas road. Campbell was the family home for several years. After a second period spent in San Jose they returned to the ranch here and there he suffered a severe heart attack. Although compelled to close his office he did not retire from business but with the aid of his wife continued it at his home. A final return to San Jose was made where he and his wife, Mrs. Edythe Thomas, were with their son, Major Mark Thomas.

The son had just been called for a years duty with the field artillery in which he is a reserve officer. Leave was granted him to return to assist his mother.

Funeral rites were held Monday from the Roger Darling chapel conducted by Dr. Mark Rifenbark of Trinity church, followed by inurnment at Oak Hill.

Beside his wife and son he is survived by a brother Johnson A. Thomas of Walnut Creek and a grandson, Mark Thomas, Jr.

Among other organizations in which he had taken official positions were the Boy Scout county council and was Kiwanis district governor for California and Nevada.

San Jose Building-Loan Association

81 W. Santa Clara St., San Jose. Phone Columbia 300.

Many people do not understand what a Building-Loan Association represents. A person with five, ten, fifteen or twenty-five dollars to set aside each month cannot accumulate a large estate in a day, a month, or a year, but a fixed sum each month to which is added liberal interest will obtain the goal he seeks. Today one out of every ten people in America has found building and loan the ideal investment. Are you looking for a dependable income? If so turn to the San Jose Building-Loan Association.

People are looking for safe investments and money loaned on the American home has proved to be safe. Can this be said of all investments? No security can possibly be better than the determination of the average citizen to own his home. Accounts up to and including $5,000 are fully insured by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corp., an instrumentality of the United States government. They are also in a position to finance the building of new homes and the refinancing of homes already built.

The officials of the San Jose Building-Loan Association are progressive yet conservative and enjoy an enviable reputation for fair dealings. This pioneer firm was organized in 1885. They have assumed a very important place of financial stability in the surrounding territory. In this review we wish to congratulate the people of this section upon having such a worthy institution at hand and we suggest to our readers to get in touch with the San Jose Building-Loan Association for saving. You may either call or write for full details.

Your transactions here aid in the upbuilding of the community as this association is interested in the progress of this section and its presence here is essential to everyone's welfare.

We desire to extend our congratulations to the San Jose Building-Loan Association and its members for the good will they enjoy. We can recommend it with pleasure, knowing that all who have dealings here will be satisfied.

Pasteurized Milk and Cream, Butter, Buttermilk, Certified Milk from Abortion Free Cows, Cottage Cheese, Fresh Ranch Eggs and Ice Cream—Bulk or Brick. Special Molds for Clubs, Lodges, Holidays or any Occasion
SANTA CLARA & 17th STS. SAN JOSE

This modern, up-to-date dairy is locally owned and is one of the best known in this community. It is clean and sanitary in every particular. It is their endeavor to give the people the best milk and dairy products that can be had.

They buy their milk from the farmers of the surrounding territory. It is collected and brought to them in a most sanitary manner.

Their milk is pasteurized as soon as it reaches the plant. For this they have strictly modern machinery and their plant and equipment are immaculate.

Pasteurization of milk means to heat the milk to 145 degrees, holding it at that temperature for a given time and cooling it quickly. Pasteurization does not hurt the food value of the milk in any way. If you have never seen this method of handling milk a visit to their plant will convince you it is the only way. "A bottle of milk is a bottle of health," is an expression of today that is quite in order.

Everywhere health authorities are insisting that milk be served to school children. No need to worry about healthful foods when you use American Dairy products.

It is the policy of the American Dairy company not only to supply milk, cream, butter and ice cream that will meet with specified requirements, but health products that only modern elaborate machinery and consideration for their products can produce.

The people of the community are indeed fortunate in having this popular dairy in this section.

SONGBIRD

Famous Soprano To Appear In San Jose Nov. 15th

The enchanting Bilu Sayao, whose soprano voice the New York Post declared to be "such a voice as the stars had when they sang together," and which Eugene Stinson of the Chicago Daily News likened to a "field of dewdrops" will open the San Jose concert series and the musical season with what is anticipated to be the most brilliant concert in its history, on next Friday evening, November 15.

The exotic, bewilderingly beautiful Brazilian, who has succeeded to the Bori roles at the Metropolitan, will sing a program including operatic arias and gems of soprano song literature. It will include: Revenez, revenez, Amours, Lully; My Mother Bids Me Bind My Hair, Haydn; La Papillon, Campra; Aria, Caro Nome, from "Rigoletto," Verdi; La Fontaine de Carouër, Letorey; Mazurka, Chopin; Pourquoi rester seulette, Saint-Saens; Villanelle, Dell'Acqua; Chopin-Sandoval; La mi sola Laureola, Obradors; Coplas de curre dulce, Obradors; The Early Morning, Peel; The Little Shepherd's Song, Watts; My Persian Garden, Bellini; Fairy Pipers, Brewer.

Lee Tracy at Geary Nov. 11 in "Every Man for Himself"

San Francisco theatergoers whose judgment has sent a score of new stage plays to the Gotham theater in the past decade will be enabled to cast another verdict when Arthur Hutchinson and Arthur Ripley present their metropolitan world premiere of "Every Man For Himself" Starring Broadway's favorite comedian, Lee Tracy, at the Geary theater Monday night, November 11, in a two-week engagement.

Producer Hutchinson made his local debut with "Oscar Wilde" and won the plaudits of the press and the class audience at which this daring drama was aimed. That piece of superb theatrical craftsmanship was staged by Mr. Ripley, who will superintend this department in the new Broadway-headed opus which was authored by Milton Lazarus, a youthful playwright with three click hits to his credit.

While "Every Man For Himself" represents a distinct departure from the drama Producer Hutchinson chose to make his bow in West Coast theatricals, he confesses it is the ideal type of comic realism he has been searching for in his long association with the legitimate theater. In his judgment, it is the worthiest candidate for the Broadway big league in a decade of reading everything recommended by his script sleuthing department.

With co-producer Ripley, Playwright Lazarus and a staff of scouts, Mr. Hutchinson has raked the rosters of talent to surround Star Tracy with a cast of familiar Broadway players. In the feminine department fortune smiled when film bosses granted temporary leaves to Kay Linaker and Susan Fox, snatched from the Eastern theater when they won recognition. Others of importance in the company are Wally Maher, Charlie Williams, John Galaudet, Charles A. Hughes, Murray Alper, David Hoffman, Beryl Vaughan, Nennette Vallon, Richard Bartell
